

Great Eastern

Engineering work shall take place on the following dates between London and Norwich which will affect the operations of the loco-hauled diagrams – see links for more detailed information.

Saturday 27th August

From 18:00hrs engineering work is due to take place between Ipswich and Stowmarket until close of service resulting in amendments to the timetable. See link for further details.

Sunday 28th August

Major alterations to the service specification today due to engineering work taking place between London and Shenfield In addition to Ipswich and Stowmarket for the entire day. People are advised to go via Cambridge for Norwich etc. See link for more details. It is believed that the service spec will involve a combination of units and loco-hauled sets to be in operation as per previous blockades of this nature.

Bank Holiday Monday 29th August

Engineering work shall take place all day between London and Shenfield resulting in an hourly loco-hauled shuttle service between Ingatestone and Norwich. In addition, further works are due to take place in the late evening between Ipswich and Stowmarket, but this only affects the last couple of services of the day – see link for further details.

It is believed that the service spec will involve a combination of units and loco-hauled sets to be in operation as per previous blockades of this nature.

Sunday 11th September

Overhead line renewals shall take place in the Chelmsford area all day today. The loco-hauled operations shall run between Colchester and Norwich only. All other route sections of the GEML will be formed of units.

Sunday 18th September

Overhead line renewals shall take place in the Chelmsford area all day today. The loco-hauled operations shall run between Colchester and Norwich only. All other route sections of the GEML will be formed of units.

Sunday 25th September

Early morning engineering work shall take place in the Colchester area until 08:40. The only service affected by this work is the 07:00 departure from Norwich which shall terminate at Colchester – all other trains will run as booked as per the timetable.

Scotrail Sleepers

No engineering work alterations to report on at the time of writing for the Scotrail Sleeper services.